

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation and is also a blatant attempt to manipulate the election by Sinclair CEO, and major BUSH supporter, David Smith.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But by airing this film, "Stolen Heroes", in an obviously self serving fashion without any attempt at letting the opposing point of view on air, proves that Sinclair has failed to serve the public interest.

Which is why I am filing a protest calling for the revocation of Sinclair's broadcasting license.
